RAW IRON DISCLAIMERS

VISIBLE WELDINGS Please note that weldings are visible on our furniture in raw iron. This is an intentional design feature that adds character and authenticity to each piece. We believe these visible weldings contribute to the unique aesthetic and craftsmanship of the furniture, making it truly one of a kind.

RAW IRON DISCLAIMERS

SCRATCHES Due to the nature of raw iron, minor scratches may be present on the surface of the furniture. These scratches are characteristic of the material and should be expected as part of its natural appearance.

RAW IRON DISCLAIMERS

PATINA FORMATION Over time, raw iron develops a natural patina, which is a sign of its authentic aging process. This will result in changes in color and texture over time. This natural process is inherent to the material and contributes to its rustic charm and durability.
